

H-2800 PARENTS AND CARETAKER RELATIVES GROUPH-2801 GENERAL INFORMATION

The Affordable Care Act of 2010 established a new Medicaid eligibility group called "Parents and Caretaker Relatives". Beginning January 1, 2014, the new Parents and Caretaker Relatives Group will include adult individuals, with income less than or equal to 24% of the Federal Poverty Level (19% FPL plus 5% disregard), formerly considered for the Low Income Families with Children (LIFC) program as a parents or caretaker relatives. This new group will use Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) based income standards.

H-2802 ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION PROCESS

Determine eligibility by applying the following criteria. The elements have been listed in the most logical order, but work on all steps simultaneously.

H-2802.1 Assistance Unit

A caretaker relative is a relative of a dependent child by blood, adoption, or marriage with whom the child is living, and who assumes primary responsibility for the child's care. A caretaker relative is one of the following:

- parent
- grandparent
- sibling (brother or sister)
- brother-in-law
- sister-in-law
- step-parent
- step-sibling
- aunt
- uncle
- first cousin
- niece
- nephew

The spouse of such parents or caretaker relatives may be considered a caretaker relative even after the marriage is terminated by death or divorce.

The assistance unit consists of the parent and/or caretaker relative and the spouse of the parent and/or caretaker relative, if living together, of child(ren) under age 18, or is age 18 and a full-time student in high school or vocational/technical training. Children are considered deprived if income eligibility is met for the Parents and Caretaker Relatives Group.

Note:

Children shall be certified in the appropriate children's category.

H-3042.2 Establish Categorical Requirement

Verify that there is a child under age 18 or is age 18 and a full-time student in high school or vocational/technical training and is expected to complete the course of study before or during the month of their 19th birthday.

School attendance requirements are met if:

- a child is out of school because of vacation, temporary illness, or family emergency,
- an incapacitated child attends fewer hours or receives instruction from a visiting teacher at home, or
- a child is enrolled in a Job Corps program.

H-3042.3 Establish Non-Financial Eligibility

Establish non-financial eligibility requirements in the Parents and Caretaker Relatives program. Verify eligibility for each member of the assistance unit with regard to the following factors:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------|
| • Age | I-100 |
| • Assignment of Third Party Rights | I-200 |
| • Citizenship/Alien Status | I-300 |
